

Stubbins Primary School

Thursday 14th September 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to our first proper newsletter of the new academic year. It has been wonderful to welcome you all into school and see the children looking so smart in their new school uniforms. We would ask that you ensure that all uniform is labelled with names and classes so that lost and mislaid items may be reunited with their owners- already we have a small pile of brand new uniform without names. You will see later in the newsletter our PTA have negotiated an offer with Stikins to provide name labels for uniforms at a discounted rate.

It has been great to see so many parents interacting with our new ClassDojo platform. Hopefully you are receiving notifications if you wish to receive them. If you are struggling to access the information, the platform does have a responsive helpdesk who will troubleshoot problems for you. Please see <https://classdojo.zendesk.com/hc/en-us/articles/360050778411-Notifications-and-Your-Parent-Account#ios> for help with any issues.

In our constant reviews of our policies and procedures, we have implemented incoming injury forms. As part of our safeguarding procedures, we would ask that any injuries which are sustained outside school to be reported to a member of staff on entry into school so that a log may be completed. This avoids the need to call parents to discuss any pre-existing injuries that may be noticed whilst in school. Please be reassured that this is common practice in schools and all information will be held in a confidential manner.

This week, you will have received your annual flu consent forms. If you wish for your child to receive their nasal vaccine, you must return the letter to school.

Tomorrow you will be receiving your half termly homework menus and Reception will be getting their first nursery rhyme homework. I look forward to seeing what the children produce! In addition to this, the parent planners will also be available through the school's website for you to view your children's curriculum focus for Autumn 1. The QR code below is a direct link to the school website for your ease.

Kind regards,
Mrs Cromey (Head teacher)
